

International Relations: A Custom Reader

recommended by

Michael G. Roskin & Nicholas O. Berry

to accompany

IR: The New World of International Relations, 6/e

from

Among Nations: Readings in International Relations

www.amongnations.com

Part I. THE COLD WAR COME AND GONE

Chapter 1. Strange New World: Power and Systems in Transformation

IR105 The Clash of Civilizations? Samuel P. Huntington 28pp.

Description - In this classic article, Huntington argued that culture was likely to be a major dividing line in the post-Cold War international system. This selection can be paired with Fouad Ajami's article, # IR062.

IR112 The Unipolar Moment Charles Krauthammer 12pp.

Description - This article is a 1990 declaration that the post-Cold War era would be unipolar with the United States at the helm.

Chapter 2. America's Changing National Interests

IR102 Foreign Affairs and the Constitution Louis Henkin 29pp.

Description - Henkin describes the constitutional responsibilities of the president and Congress in American foreign policy and discusses how their roles have changed over time.

IR155 Democracy and the National Interest Strobe Talbott 17pp.

Description - Clinton's deputy secretary of state argues for the importance of democracy promotion in American foreign policy.

Chapter 3. Wrong, Terribly Wrong: The United States and Vietnam

IR026 The Pretty Prudent Public: Post Post-Vietnam American Opinion on the Use of Military Force Bruce W. Jentleson 40pp.

Description - Examining how American public opinion on the use of force has changed since Vietnam, Jentleson argues that public opinion shifts reasonably depending on the "principal policy objective" behind the use of force.

Chapter 4. Can the United States Lead the World?

IR107 America's Imperial Ambition G. John Ikenberry 17pp.

Description - Ikenberry criticizes what he considers the "neoimperial" post-9/11 grand strategy of the George W. Bush administration and argues that the United States should draw more on its post-World War II traditions of balance-of-power politics and multilateral coalitions.

IR158 Poll Positions: What Americans Really Think About U.S. Foreign Policy Daniel Yankelovich 15pp.

Description - Yankelovich surveys attitudes on U.S. foreign policy and finds substantial polarization between Republicans and Democrats and between churchgoers and non-churchgoers, along with dissatisfaction on Iraq.

Chapter 5. From Russia to the Soviet Union

IR109 The Sources of Soviet Conduct George F. Kennan ("Mr. X") 18pp.

Description - The landmark article that set out the United States' Cold War grand strategy of containment.

Chapter 6. From the Soviet Union Back to Russia

IR018 International Relations Theory and the End of the Cold War John Lewis Gaddis 74pp.

Description - Reviewing the extensive theoretical literature in international relations, John Lewis Gaddis concludes that none of the major approaches in the field adequately forecast how and when the Cold War would end.

IR043 What Was the Cold War About?: Evidence from Its Ending John Mueller 30pp.

Description - Mueller argues that the Cold War was due to the Soviet Union's expansionary ideology, since the West believed it had ended after Mikhail Gorbachev renounced Soviet expansionism in 1988-89 but before the collapse of Soviet power or Soviet control over Eastern Europe.

Part II. THE GLOBAL SOUTH

Chapter 7. South Africa and the End of Colonialism

IR090 How to Rebuild Africa Stephen Ellis 14pp.

Description - The international community has compiled a poor record in helping failed and failing states in Africa; future interventions must be open to different approaches.

Chapter 8. Eternal Warfare in the Holy Land?

IR123 Taking Arabs Seriously Marc Lynch 14pp.

Description - Lynch critiques U.S. public diplomacy in the Middle East, and calls for a more honest and extensive dialogue with Arab political elites and intellectuals.

IR124 Middle East Peace Through Partition David Makovsky 18pp.

Description - This article is a post-mortem of the Oslo peace process between Israel and the Palestinians and a preview of Israel's fall-back strategy of disengagement.

Chapter 9. Oil and Turmoil: The Persian Gulf

IR032 Threat Inflation and the Failure of the Marketplace of Ideas: The Selling of the Iraq War Chaim Kaufmann 51pp.

Description - Kaufmann argues that the George W. Bush administration's deliberate exaggeration of the Iraqi threat, along with the help of complicit experts, swayed the U.S. public to support the war. This selection can be paired with Kenneth M. Pollack's article, # IR048.

IR083 What Went Wrong in Iraq Larry Diamond 23pp.

Description - Diamond, a democratization scholar who served as an advisor to the Coalition Provisional Authority in Iraq, describes how the United States mishandled the postwar occupation there.

Chapter 10. The Troubled Americas: Our Neglected South

IR078 The Forgotten Relationship Jorge G. Castañeda 15pp.

Description - Instead of ignoring Latin America or focusing only on security matters, as the United States has done since 9/11, Washington should engage the region more actively on issues such as democratization and economic reform.

Chapter 11. Economic Development: The Rich and the Poor

IR070 How to Help Poor Countries Nancy Birdsall, Dani Rodrik, 17pp.
and Arvind Subramanian

Description - The authors argue that trade and aid have limits as tools for spurring economic development in poor countries, and that more can be accomplished by tailoring economic policies to local circumstances, discouraging corruption, facilitating the development of appropriate technology, and permitting greater international labor mobility. This selection can be paired with Jeffrey D. Sachs' article, # IR070.

Part III. THE ETERNAL THREATS

There are no suggestions for Chapters 12 and 13.

Chapter 14. Nuclear Politics: Is the Bomb Here to Stay?

IR042 The Essential Irrelevance of Nuclear Weapons: Stability in the Postwar World John Mueller 27pp.

Description - Mueller argues that nuclear weapons and deterrence have not significantly affected world politics.

IR054 The Causes of Nuclear Proliferation Scott D. Sagan 12pp.

Description - Sagan lays out three different models of why states go nuclear and analyzes their various implications.

Chapter 15. The Challenge of Terrorism

IR085 Somebody Else's Civil War Michael Scott Doran 21pp.

Description - Doran explains what motivated the 9/11 attacks and explores the radical Islamist worldview of the hijackers.

IR153 The Protean Enemy Jessica Stern 14pp.

Description - After the destruction of its haven in Afghanistan, al Qaeda evolved and decentralized and still poses a major threat to U.S. interests.

Part IV. THE ECONOMIC BLOCS

Chapter 16. The Uniting of Europe

IR056 Alliance Formation and the Balance of World Power Stephen M. Walt 46pp.

Description - Walt argues that alliances form primarily as a result of balancing against threats.

IR127 A Perfect Failure: NATO's War Against Yugoslavia Michael Mandelbaum 10pp.

Description - Mandelbaum offers a scathing top-to-bottom critique of the Kosovo intervention. This selection can be paired with James B. Steinberg's article, # IR151.

Chapter 17. Pacific Tremors

IR136 China's Governance Crisis Minxin Pei 14pp.
Description - Rapid social and economic changes, the author argues, have produced an emerging governance crisis that threatens the stability of China's autocratic political system.

Chapter 18. The United States and Globalization

IR103 Clash of Globalizations Stanley Hoffmann 12pp.
Description - Globalization is having complex effects on the prospects for world order, Hoffmann argues, as increased integration has unleashed tensions and contradictions for states that are still autonomous but increasingly encumbered.

IR115 Competitiveness: A Dangerous Obsession Paul Krugman 17pp.
Description - Krugman argues that the notion that the economic well-being of a nation's people depends upon the country's level of international competitiveness is a myth, and a dangerous one because it can lead to counterproductive policies.

Part V. THE POLITICS OF A NEW WORLD

Chapter 19. The United States and Globalization

IR044 Soft Power and American Foreign Policy Joseph S. Nye, Jr. 22pp.
Description - Nye argues that leading U.S. foreign policy goals would be better served by a greater emphasis on persuasion and attraction.

There are no suggestions for Chapter 20.

Chapter 21. The United Nations

IR097 Why the Security Council Failed Michael J. Glennon 20pp.
Description - Glennon argues that the UN was unable to handle the challenge of Iraq because it no longer accurately reflected the international power structure.

Chapter 22. Giving Peace a Chance

IR013 Liberalism and World Politics Michael W. Doyle 28pp.
Description - In this classic article, Doyle describes how and why the interactions of liberal democratic states are peaceful.

International Relations: A Custom Reader

recommended by Michael G. Roskin & Nicholas O. Berry to accompany IR: The New World of International Relations, 6/e from Among Nations: Readings in International Relations
www.amongnations.com

Order Form (check the articles you want to include in your reader)

Part I. THE COLD WAR COME AND GONE
Chapter 1. Strange New World: Power and Systems in Transformation	Article #	Pages
The Clash of Civilizations? by Samuel P. Huntington	IR105	28
The Unipolar Moment by Charles Krauthammer	IR112	12
Chapter 2. America's Changing National Interests
Foreign Affairs and the Constitution by Louis Henkin	IR102	29
Democracy and the National Interest by Strobe Talbott	IR155	17
Chapter 3. Wrong, Terribly Wrong: The United States and Vietnam
The Pretty Prudent Public: Post Post-Vietnam American Opinion on the Use of Military Force by Bruce W. Jentleson	IR026	40
Chapter 4. Can the United States Lead the World?
America's Imperial Ambition by G. John Ikenberry	IR107	17
Poll Positions: What Americans Really Think About U.S. Foreign Policy by Daniel Yankelovich	IR158	15
Chapter 5. From Russia to the Soviet Union
The Sources of Soviet Conduct by George F. Kennan ("Mr. X")	IR109	18
Chapter 6. From the Soviet Union Back to Russia
International Relations Theory and the End of the Cold War by John Lewis Gaddis	IR018	74
What Was the Cold War About?: Evidence from Its Ending by John Mueller	IR043	30
Part II. THE GLOBAL SOUTH
Chapter 7. South Africa and the End of Colonialism
How to Rebuild Africa by Stephen Ellis	IR090	14
Chapter 8. Eternal Warfare in the Holy Land?
Taking Arabs Seriously by Marc Lynch	IR123	14
Middle East Peace Through Partition by David Makovsky	IR124	18
Chapter 9. Oil and Turmoil: The Persian Gulf
Threat Inflation and the Failure of the Marketplace of Ideas: The Selling of the Iraq War by Chaim Kaufmann	IR032	51
What Went Wrong in Iraq by Larry Diamond	IR083	23
Chapter 10. The Troubled Americas: Our Neglected South
The Forgotten Relationship by Jorge G. Castañeda	IR078	15
Chapter 11. Economic Development: The Rich and the Poor
How to Help Poor Countries by Nancy Birdsall, Dani Rodrik, and Arvind Subramanian	IR070	17

Part III. THE ETERNAL THREATS

Chapter 14. Nuclear Politics: Is the Bomb Here to Stay?

The Essential Irrelevance of Nuclear Weapons: Stability in the Postwar World by John Mueller	IR042	27
The Causes of Nuclear Proliferation by Scott D. Sagan	IR054	12

Chapter 15. The Challenge of Terrorism

Somebody Else's Civil War by Michael Scott Doran	IR085	21
The Protean Enemy by Jessica Stern	IR153	14

Part IV. THE ECONOMIC BLOCS

Chapter 16. The Uniting of Europe

Alliance Formation and the Balance of World Power by Stephen M. Walt	IR056	46
A Perfect Failure: NATO's War Against Yugoslavia by Michael Mandelbaum	IR127	10

Chapter 17. Pacific Tremors

China's Governance Crisis by Minxin Pei	IR136	14
---	-------	----

Chapter 18. The United States and Globalization

Clash of Globalizations by Stanley Hoffmann	IR103	12
Competitiveness: A Dangerous Obsession by Paul Krugman	IR115	17

Part V. THE POLITICS OF A NEW WORLD

Chapter 19. The United States and Globalization

Soft Power and American Foreign Policy by Joseph S. Nye, Jr.	IR044	22
--	-------	----

Chapter 21. The United Nations

Why the Security Council Failed by Michael J. Glennon	IR097	20
---	-------	----

Chapter 22. Giving Peace a Chance

Liberalism and World Politics by Michael W. Doyle	IR013	28
---	-------	----

4 EASY ways to get an exam copy in 2 weeks or less!

GO to www.amongnations.com and create your reader online by following the easy to use bookbuilding site

Or GIVE this sheet and your selections to your PH representative

Or FAX to: 1 617 671-2923

Or EMAIL the articles, numbers, and required information to: dbase.pub@pearsoncustom.com

Your information (required):

Name:

School:

Address:

Email:

Phone:

Course name and #:

Enrollment (per term):

I'm considering a reader for (circle one): Summer Fall Winter/Spring

Would you like to package with your textbook (please specify text) for a 10% package discount?

PH Sales representative's name: