

Retrieving the American Past: Sample Table of Contents

HISTORY OF LABOR

(S) = Secondary Source Readings

(P) = Primary Source Readings

| Selection Topic | Selection # (Pages) |
|--|--------------------------------|
| “From Artisans to Factory Hands: The Beginnings of an Industrial Society,” Warren R. Van Tine | RTAP11A1 (30) |
| Introduction | |
| From “Libertine Culture” to “Industrial Morality” (S) | |
| Transition to Industrial Discipline (P) | |
| Further Reading | |
| “The Age of Industrial Violence,” Warren R. Van Tine | RTAP31A1 (39) |
| Introduction | |
| Causes and Character of Industrial Violence (S) | |
| The Pullman Boycott of 1894: A Case Study of Industrial Strife (P) | |
| Further Reading | |
| “The Emergence of the Modern Labor Movement,” Pamela J. Mills and Warren R. Van Tine | RTAP47A1 (38) |
| Introduction | |
| Establishing a Philosophy for American Labor (S) | |
| Three Approaches to Unionism (P) | |
| Further Reading | |
| “Industrial Unionism: A Chapter in American Democracy,” Patrick D. Reagan | RTAP75A1 (36) |
| Introduction | |
| The Rise of Industrial Union: The Wagner Act, Rank and File Militancy, and Labor Leadership (S) | |
| Strikes, Workers, and Employers in the Late 1930’s (P) | |
| Further Reading | |
| “Deindustrialization,” Daniel Nelson | RTAP66A1 (36) |
| Introduction | |
| Deindustrialization: Present and Future (S) | |
| Contemporary Analysis of Deindustrialization (P) | |
| Further Reading | |